

It is that time of the year again!!

Information

Please come out and help save a life. Your blood could very well save a child's life that is waiting on some white blood cells. The big red blood bus will be here February 10 next to City Hall in the old Choctaw Willys parking lot.